Description

St Clement faience tin-glazed carnation plate with crumpled edges circa 1800.

St. Clement faience, originating from the French city of Saint-Clément, is renowned for its high-quality earthenware featuring intricate designs and vibrant glazes. Produced from the 18th century, it often showcases floral patterns and rich colours, with a distinctive tin-glazed finish. St. Clement faience reflects the region's storied ceramic craftsmanship and artistic heritage.
