

A decommissioned muzzle loading rifled-musket circa 1850

Sold

Description

A decommissioned muzzle loading rifled-musket circa 1850 - a rare early example of rifling - by Issac Hammond of Winchester. The barrels and locks are marked with the maker's name. The lock, hammers & trigger guard with scroll engraving. In very good overall decorative condition.