Description

A refined 18ct white gold half eternity ring, elegantly set with a graduated row of brilliant-cut diamonds. The diamonds are arranged to increase in size towards the centre, creating a graceful sweep of light and a beautifully balanced, gently tapering silhouette.

The cool, polished white-gold setting enhances the brightness of the stones, while the brilliant cuts give the ring an enduring, lively sparkle from every angle. Its half-set design offers a practical and comfortable fit for everyday wear, without sacrificing the luxurious presence of a full diamond band.

Timeless and versatile, this elegant ring works beautifully as a wedding or anniversary band, a meaningful gift, or a refined addition to an existing ring stack. It can also be worn alone as a delicate statement of understated elegance.
