Description

N E From Danish silver comet brooch set with an oval cabochon amethyst, circa 1955.

N. E. From (Niels Erik From, 1908-1982) was a renowned Danish silversmith and jewellery designer celebrated for his elegant and modernist creations. He founded his workshop in Nakslov, Denmark, in 1931, later moving it to Copenhagen.

From's designs often combined organic shapes with sleek, minimalist lines, reflecting the Scandinavian design ethos of simplicity and craftsmanship. His early work was inspired by nature, featuring floral and abstract motifs, while later pieces showcased bold geometric forms.

Crafted mainly in sterling silver, N. E. From's jewellery remains highly collectible today, admired for its timeless beauty, fine craftsmanship, and distinctive Danish modern style.
