Description

A Chinese porcelain famille rose vase converted to a table lamp, circa 1900. Rewired with twisted fabric flex and PAT tested.

Famille Rose is a Chinese porcelain pattern from the Qing dynasty, known for its vibrant, multicoloured floral designs. Originating in the early 18th century, the pattern features delicate, intricate motifs painted in pink, green, and other pastel hues.

Please note that the shade is for display purposes and is not included with the lamp.
