

Jaeger LeCoultre travel alarm clock

£395

Description

A mid-century Jaeger LeCoultre blued steel and gold plated travel alarm clock with original slip case and box, circa 1960.

Jaeger-LeCoultre is a prestigious Swiss luxury watchmaker renowned for its innovation, craftsmanship, and timeless designs. Founded in 1833 in Le Sentier, Switzerland, the brand has pioneered numerous horological advancements, including the iconic Reverso, Atmos clock, and ultra-thin movements.

Known as "The Watchmaker's Watchmaker," Jaeger-LeCoultre supplies intricate movements to other luxury brands. Combining heritage with cutting-edge technology, the Maison offers a wide range of elegant timepieces, celebrating art, precision, and sophistication in fine watchmaking.