Description

Large Moustier faience pottery lidded tureen with simple decoration, circa 1900.

Moustier faience pottery, originating from Moustiers-Sainte-Marie in France, is celebrated for its hand-painted designs and delicate tin-glazed finish. Dating back to the 17th century, it features intricate blue and white patterns, often inspired by Chinese porcelain. Renowned for its craftsmanship, Moustier faience reflects a blend of artistic heritage and technical skill.
