Description

A 1930s Sabino France opaline moulded glass figure of a squirrel on a black glass base.

Sabino France, established in the early 20th century, is renowned for its exquisite glassware, particularly art glass and decorative pieces. Founded by the artist and designer, Gabriel Argy-Rousseau, the company gained fame for its innovative use of opalescent glass, often featuring intricate designs inspired by nature and geometric patterns.

Sabino's creations epitomise the Art Deco movement, combining craftsmanship with artistic vision. Today, Sabino France is celebrated by collectors for its timeless elegance, quality, and unique contributions to glass artistry.
