

Harrods two-seater sofa

Sold

Description

A wonderfully comfortable two-seater sofa retailed by Harrods circa 1910. Reupholstered in taupe linen.

Harrods, founded in 1834 by Charles Henry Harrod in London, began as a small grocery store. By the late 19th century, under the ownership of the Harrod family, it expanded into a grand department store known for its luxury goods and exceptional service.