Description

A set of 1950s hand-blown Venetian Murano glass cocktail stirrers featuring one parrot and six pineapples.

Murano glass is a world-renowned, hand-blown glass art form originating from the Venetian island of Murano, Italy. Dating back to the 13th century, it is celebrated for its vibrant colours, intricate designs, and innovative techniques like Millefiori and Filigree.

Skilled artisans create everything from delicate glassware to ornate sculptures, combining traditional craftsmanship with modern creativity. Murano glass is highly prized for its beauty and craftsmanship, symbolising centuries of Italian artistry and luxury in decorative glassmaking.
