

Edwardian yellow gold crescent brooch

£395

Description

An Edwardian yellow gold crescent brooch set with amethysts and pearls.

The crescent brooch, often featuring a curved, moon-shaped design, holds significant historical and cultural value. It symbolises various themes, from ancient lunar deities to personal adornment in different eras. Popular in Victorian and Edwardian fashion, it reflects both aesthetic and symbolic meanings, such as elegance, protection, and status.
