Description

1940s Cyma automatic stainless steel gent's wrist watch.

Cyma watches, established in 1862 in Switzerland, are renowned for their precision, craftsmanship, and timeless design. Known for producing high-quality timepieces with reliable movements, Cyma has a rich history in both luxury and military watches. The brand combines Swiss watch making tradition with elegant aesthetics, making Cyma a respected name in horology.

Note that the watch is currently in working order but we have not had it serviced.
