Description

A gilt gesso sunburst wall clock with an 8 day manual Smiths movement, circa 1950

Smiths Clocks, a renowned British brand, became iconic for their mid-century designs, notably the sunburst clock. Inspired by the Atomic Age, the sunburst design features radiating spokes resembling sun rays, blending functionality with art. These clocks, often crafted in wood or metal, epitomise 1950s and 1960s modernist aesthetics.
